OUR CRUISERS' VISIT TO JAPAN

SHOWING THE FLAG
'KENT' GOING WITH 'BERWICK'
AND 'SUFFOLK'

V. C. CAPTAIN FOR HONG KONG

Following the policy of showing the flag in all parts of the world, and also to repay calls on Hong Kong by Japanese warships, three of the five new 10,000 tons county-class cruisers on the China Station are to visit Japanese waters, including the flagship of Vice-Admiral Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt, K.C.B., D.S.O., D.G.L. H.M.S. "Kent," the flagship (Captain J. Wolfe-Murray, D.S.O.) will leave Shanghai on Nov. 8. But she will first go 200 miles up the estuary of the Yangtze River to visit Nanking, the capital of China. On Nov. 11 she sails for Japan. The ports "Kent" will call at are Kagoshima, Mitsui, Kusanabe, Shimidzu and Yokohama.

H.M.S. "Suffolk" (Captain N. O'Neill) leaves Wei-hai-wei (in North China) on Nov. 9. Her itinerary includes Nagasaki, Beppu, Takamatsu, Kobe, Shimidzu and Yokohama.

H.M.S. "Berwick" (Captain E. G. Robinson, V.C., O.B.E.) sails from

V. C. FOR HONG KONG

A Naval holder of the Victoria Cross has arrived on the China Station and will be here on Dec. 12.

He is Captain Eric Gascoigne Robinson, V.C., O.B.E., R.N., who has relieved Captain R. S. Wykes-Sneyd, D.S.O., in command of H.M.S. "Berwick."

Captain Robinson was promoted to his present rank on Dec. 31, 1920. Captain Wykes-Sneyd is on his way home.

Wei-hai-wei on Nov. 3 to visit Tsingtao, Fusan, Karatsu, Miyajima, Osaka, Yokkaichi and Yokohama.

It will be seen that all three cruisers are to call at Yokohama, which is the port of and only an hour by electric train from Tokyo, the historic capital of the Nippon Empire.

H.M.S. "Titanic," depot ship of the 4th Submarine Flotilla (Captain J. B. Glencross, D.S.O.) and H.M.S. S.M. L15, L19, L27 and L33 left Nagasaki yesterday for Nimrod Sound to pick up L3, prior to returning here on Nov. 9.

Change of Flag
After their cruise, "Kent," "Suffolk" and "Berwick" will come south to Hong Kong, being due here on Dec. 12. The change of flag (when D. F. Yates-Lee, F. W. Senior, D. S. Vice-Admiral A. K. Walsell, C.B., succeeds Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt as Commander-in-Chief, China) will very likely be made here. Then "Kent" will go on a southern cruise, leaving Hong Kong on Dec. 19 and returning about Jan. 21, 1929.

H.M.S. "Hermes," the aircraft carrier which only recently returned from the North, is due to leave Hong Kong again on Nov. 26, also on a southern cruise, visiting Manila (in the Philippines) and Kudat (in Borneo). "Hermes" is expected back on Dec. 17.

Reliefs Coming Out

"GRAFT"

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST PHILADELPHIA POLICE

Philadelphia, Yesterday.
Vigorous steps are being taken as a result of the investigation which is being conducted by a grand jury into questions of "wholesale police graft and corruption" in Philadelphia, following the discovery that numbers of policemen were associated with illicit liquor dens. The Mayor has ordered every policeman to be shifted to a different beat.

The latest evidence has disclosed that heavy bribes have been paid to prevent police raids on lottery houses.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of William B. Smith, member of the Pennsylvania Legislature and Clerk of the Council, who is charged with operating "a clearing house lottery," and also for the arrest of a number of policemen on a charge of blackmailing gamblers. The testimony of witnesses, mostly negroes, has further implicated two police captains (already suspended), thirteen detectives, and a number of inferior officers.—Reuter's American Service.

ELECTRIFYING 1,300 MILES OF RAILROAD

SEVEN YEARS' JOB

New York, Yesterday.
The Pennsylvania Railroad intends to electrify 1,300 miles of track between New York and Wilmington at a cost of $100,000,000.

It is estimated that it will take seven years to complete.—Reuter's American Service.

RAIL AND AIR

HOME COMPANIES TO SEEK POWERS

BETTER TRANSPORT

London, Yesterday.
Still another development in aviation is foreshadowed by a statement that the railway companies will shortly apply to Parliament for powers to carry on air transport. Conferences are being held to consider the matter. It is understood that companies wish to speed up the delivery of produce for the London markets and for the moment the question of passenger service is not important.

A railway official said: "We have powers over the railway, roads, canals and the sea, and it is logical that, should circumstances make it desirable, we should also take the air."

An official of the London and North-Eastern Railway said his company would like an air extension from ports.—British Wireless Service.

MUNICIPALITIES

FIGURES IN MINIATURE
GENERAL ELECTION

LABOUR LEADING

London, Yesterday.
London polled yesterday, in the miniature General Election which occurs triennially to decide the constitution of 28 Borough Councils.

The returns in many cases were received after midnight, but votes were not counted in others until today.

So far Labour-Socialists have won a small number of seats at the expense of Municipal Reformers generally representing the Conservative and Liberal alliance.

Counting also took place in over 300 cities and boroughs in England and Wales where one-third of the Municipal Council are elected annually.

Here Labour won much more substantially than in London, the latest figures showing gains and losses for Labour of 119 and 18, respectively. Conservatives and Liberals 24 gains and 95 losses, Independents 10 gains and 40 losses.—Reuter.

IN THE NAME OF WESLEY

LONDON CHAPEL
TRIBUTES TO FOUNDER OF PRACTICAL RELIGION

"FOR ORDINARY MEN"

London, Yesterday.
Tributes to the founder of Wesleyanism were paid by the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Prime Minister at a meeting held under the presidency of the Lord Mayor of London in support of an appeal for funds to renovate Wesley's chapel in the City-road. The Archbishop observed that John Wesley did more than anyone to uplift the popular religious life of England.

Mr. Baldwin said that Wesley was a great Englishman, typical of a great century. If any one single man stood between England and monstrous upheavals on the continent it was John Wesley. Wesley's supreme legacy to this country was the conception of practical religion for the ordinary man and woman.—British Wireless Service.

PIONEER PICTURES

Once again the "China Mail" will present a fine page of pictures of local interest. To-morrow's art supplement will include the usual features, together with the "pioneer service" photos which are so keenly looked forward to.

There will be a composite group of all the Royal Engineers in Hong Kong, with their officers; photos of the U.S.R.C. v. Mr. Sewell's team at lawn tennis; a rugby football XV from one of H.M. ships; a photo of the "Mel Lau-fang of Hong Kong" pictures of the Trevelyan Cup winners and the start and finish of the event; and persons and views of Kwangai taken by Dr. A. Cannon of Hong Kong.

Be sure to get to-morrow's "China Mail" for its pictures, features, news and specials.

PORT MELBOURNE

UNIONISTS STILL WRANGLING
WITH VOLUNTEERS

Melbourne, Yesterday.
Forty trade unionists attacked volunteers who were boarding a train at Flinders Street Station for Port Melbourne and seven volunteers were flung from the train on to the line, while others were flogged and pushed from the platform. The fight continued during the journey and was carried on the platform at Port Melbourne.

Hundreds of stevedores attacked other volunteers at the docks and threw one into the sea, while a volunteer driving a lorry was hit by a stone and badly injured.—Reuter.

THE SCOTS GUARDS

London, Yesterday.
The Scots Guards leave China early in the New Year and go to Chelsea to replace for public duties in London the Welsh Guards, who are going to Egypt.—Reuter.

AN AMERICAN SCANDAL

SERIOUS CHARGE
DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND AN OIL PROMOTER

$10,000 BRIBE

Los Angeles, Yesterday.
The District Attorney, Ass. Keyes, has been indicted on a charge of "corrupt misconduct while in office."

It is alleged that Keyes took $10,000 from Jacob Berman, the promoter of the Julian Petroleum Company, which failed last year for a million dollars, on the understanding that Berman and his associates should not be convicted.—Reuter's American Service.

KIDNAPPING CASE

YOUNG MARRIED CHINESE
WOMAN CHARGED

TAIPO INCIDENT

Appearing on remand, evidence was this morning heard against a young married Chinese woman, at the Kowloon Magistrate's court, who was charged before Mr. W. Schofield with kidnapping a small Chinese boy, aged 7 years, from his parents residing at No. 531 Canton-road, on Oct. 25.

It appeared that complainant went to work as usual, on the morning of Oct. 25, but at 12 noon her son, 11 years old, came to the factory and said that his little brother was missing. She at once left the factory and went to look for the missing lad. After a fruitless search, she went to her cousin's house, and leaving the 11-year-old boy behind, she and her cousin went to No. 5 Reclamation-street, which complainant had been told was the residence of defendant. Defendant was not there and was believed to be at Tai po. Complainant and her cousin went there and saw defendant and her husband.

Complainant asked for her son to be given back to her. The man implored her not to make a report to the police, as it would disgrace his name.

Case proceeding.

The death is announced of William Leonard Courtney, M. A., LL.D., St. Andrews, at the age of 73.

Mr. Courtney was at the time of his death a Fellow of New College, Oxford, and during his long life was prominently connected with journalism and scholarly life. He was well known economist.

In 1894 he was appointed editor of the "Fortnightly Review" and was later on the editorial staff of the "Daily Telegraph." He was a director of the well-known publishing firm, Messrs. Chapman and Hall, Ltd.

For many years Mr. Courtney was treasurer of the Oxford University Boat Club.—Reuter.

A REVENUE OFFICER'S MR. CHURCHILL AND COLLISION

SUES FOR DAMAGES
ALSO INDIAN CLERK WHO RODE PILION

CLAIMS FOR $800 AND $1,000

Arising out of a collision at about 6.15 p.m. near the Monument at Happy Valley on Sept. 20, Revenue Officer H. J. Pearce, of the Imports & Exports Department, and Mr. F. M. el Arculli, described as a clerk of No. 153, Wong-nel-chong-road, are claiming damages for alleged negligence against Mr. To Yuk-sang, No. 6, Tai Yuen-street.

The negligence is attributed, in the writs, to "defendant, or his servant or agent," in driving public motor-car No. 170, owned by defendant.

Mr. Pearce's claim is for $800, made up as follows:—

Value of his motor-cycle, No. 148, which was "completely wrecked and is now useless"	$500
Hospital expenses and medicine	16
Loss of use of motor-cycle	50
General damages	234
Total	$800

Injuries Described

Mr. F. M. el Arculli, who states that he was riding pillion behind Mr. Pearce, makes his claim as follows:—

Hospital expenses	$ 150
Massage expenses	50
Doctor's bill	300
Loss of employment	250
General pain, suffering and injury to his finger and arm, ears, back and leg, part of which is expected to be permanent	1,000
Total	$1,750

He waives $750 to limit the claim to $1,000 and thus bring it within the jurisdiction of the Summary Court.

When the case came on for the first time this morning, Mr. C. A. S. Russ appeared for both plaintiffs and Mr. T. G. Bennett for the defendant.

On Mr. Bennett's application, Mr. Justice Jacks (Pulano Judge) ordered an adjournment of a week and directed Mr. Russ to supply Mr. Bennett with particulars of the "negligent driving" alleged to defendant.

U.S. PRESIDENCY

"DIRTIEST CAMPAIGN IN NATION'S HISTORY"

CLOSING SPEECHES

New York, Yesterday.

The "dirtiest campaign in the history of the nation" is the description by Senator Glass of Virginia of the presidential campaign in which personalities and bigotries have been conspicuous.

The number of lies circulated by irresponsible agents of both parties seems never-ending. Governor Smith has been obliged to reply publicly to the "whispered charges" that he is a drunkard and a subversive tool of the Catholic Church while Mr. Hoover has been accused of being pro-British, which is a heinous crime in the eyes of the Irish and German elements. He had to get the United States Treasury to confirm that he was not an Income Tax defaulter, as some of his opponents had asserted.

Meanwhile, Republican orators insist that neither prohibition nor immigration is an unlimited flow of "undesirable" people. He explained that he did not mind whether people were able to read or write, if they came to the United States and reared up children and sent them to State schools and were willing to take the oath of allegiance to the Constitution. Such men were just as good American citizens as those who came from the long unbroken line of New England ancestry that came over with the Mayflower.

MR. CHURCHILL AND "HIS UNION"

NEW DEVELOPMENT
FELLOW BRICKLAYERS DIS-
PLEASED WITH HIS ADMISSION

CHANCELLOR'S ATTITUDE

London, Yesterday.
Three weeks ago it became known that Mr. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, had accepted the invitation made by the Mayor of Battersea, Divisional Secretary of Bricklayers' Trade Union, to become a member of that union on the strength of his having laid bricks in the building of a house on his estate at Westerham.

The invitation was made more by way of a joke and accepted in the same spirit.

Some members of the Bricklayers' Union, however, preferred to regard the matter seriously and declared that public contempt and ridicule had been brought upon the organization.

The Executive Council of the Union tried to maintain that Mr. Churchill's admission to the Union was still a good joke but they have eventually had to yield to protests. The Executive officially announced to-day its decision that Mr. Churchill was not eligible for membership of the Union, as he did not intend to work as a bricklayer. Technically, he was not a member, because his admission form had not been properly completed, his period at the trade having been omitted, and his proposal of admission not having been seconded.

Mr. Churchill, on the other hand, refused to accept this decision, which is tantamount to his expulsion from the Union. He is reported to have declared that he does not see how he could do so without endangering the position of other members of the Union who, having been duly accepted as members by responsible authorities, ought to have an assurance that they cannot be turned out for political reasons.—British Wireless Service.

SAVED FROM WOLF

CHINESE SERVANT BAPTIZES DYING CHILD.

EXCITING ENCOUNTER

Liangchow, (Kangsu). When Joseph Hou, a domestic of the Catholic missionaries at Suechow, Kansu, China, started on an errand to Kanchow, a three days' journey through lonely mountain passes inhabited by fierce wolves, he little dreamed of the exciting encounter he was to experience.

His errand accomplished in Kanchow, Joseph was hurrying homeward on the lonely road when he was startled by voices to the rear of him. Turning suddenly he beheld a large wolf chased at some distance by a wildly gesticulating crowd. In the wolf's mouth was an infant.

Unarmed, Joseph flung himself at the wolf, which seeing itself trapped on all sides, dropped its prey and fled. The heroic domestic quickly discerned that the child was dying. Recalling the constant instructions of the priests, Joseph scooped up some water from a roadside rivulet and baptized the expiring infant before the crowd reached the spot. The baby died a few minutes later, and Joseph resumed his homeward journey happy in the thought that he had been instrumental "in opening the gates of Heaven to an unknown babe."—"The Rock."

"FOR WOMEN"

LATEST PARISIAN DRESS CREATIONS

Eather Ralston's first starring picture, "Fashions For Women" which comes to the Queen's Theatre on Sunday and Monday according to a special advertisement in this issue, is said to be a riot of comedy, beautiful mannequins and gorgeous gowns. The story, adapted from the play "The Girl of the Hour," brings Miss Ralston to the screen as a full-fledged star following triumph in "Children of Divorce" which was recently shown here. One of the production's high spots is a fashion review staged by Miss Ralston and fifteen beautiful mannequins in a Parisian modiste's shop. The picture was brought to the screen by Dorothy Arzner, one of the few women directors in film history. Featured in Miss Ralston's supporting cast are Einar Hanson and Raymond Hatton, who will be remembered for his work in "We're in the Navy Now."

"THE SERENADERS"

NEW VAUDEVILLE SHOW FOR STAR

Seats may now be booked, according to a special advertisement in this issue, for the coming season of Jack Carter's "Serenaders" which opens at the Star Theatre on Tuesday next at 9.15 p.m. "The Serenaders" are well known throughout the East as an extremely versatile troupe who present a variety of novel dance items, syncopated music and up-to-the-minute revue and vaudeville items of proved popularity in London and New York. Among the principals of the company is "Boddidy" whose speciality is an eccentric dance wherein he executes a number of original steps and finally spins around on his head at an alarming speed. Jack Carter, himself, is the principal comedian and is supported by a large number of equally talented artists each accomplished in his or her own particular line. The company will appear for a limited number of nights and in view of this large houses should be the rule especially on the opening night, Tuesday.

NEWPORT DOCKS

LACK OF SIDING.
ACCOMMODATION

TRAFFIC RELIEF

The question of the alleged inadequate siding accommodation at the Alexandra Docks, Newport, has again been raised by colliery owners, shipowners and shipping agents, and the hope is expressed that the scheme prepared some years ago by the Great Western Railway Company, the owners of the docks, which to a large extent had been abandoned, will be put into operation. Thousands of tons of coal from the eastern and western valleys of Monmouthshire, it is stated, for which Newport is the natural port of shipment, are every week sent either to Cardiff or Barry because colliery owners and traders are not given adequate facilities at Newport for the reception and clearance of traffic.

This is a very serious matter for the port. The East Mendall Bridge, described as a bottle neck for traffic to and from the docks, has been a handicap. The suggestion is made therefore that a new road should be constructed to join up a large number of sidings that might be laid down on the vacant land to the west, which would serve as a buffer between the South Dock, and tips and sidings that it would be possible to erect on quays of the proposed new cut. This would give necessary relief to traffic coming from the eastern and western valleys at East Mendall Bridge, and facilitate the manipulation of traffic for coal export.

THE HONGHAI PIRATES

It is quite refreshing to learn that the notorious pirates of the Honghai Bay district, who give as much trouble as they possibly can, are themselves being troubled at the present moment. It appears that they are being subjected to a form of tyranny that must be galling to their liberty-loving hearts. The "Reds" of the district are after them and, what is more to the point, have been pressing them closely. We have no compunction in expressing complete satisfaction that the tables are being turned on the piratical miscreants, for they certainly deserve all the misfortune that retribution can bring upon them. Sympathy with them is worse than useless. They have shown that they feel none for others, and therefore they cannot expect to have it offered to them, when they themselves are being victimised. Indeed, at the risk of appearing vindictive we shall express the impious wish that the "Reds" will be successful in compelling the pirates to disgorge a considerable part of their ill-gotten gains. They have got off much too lightly, so far, and their punishment, which is long overdue, may as well come from the "Reds" as from anyone else. It would appear that the "Reds" in question are the remnants of those who tried to put into practice the farcical idea of governing Syabue on Soviet lines—and actually did so for some six months. They were then ignominiously ejected and took to flight in the neighbouring hills. But the "Reds," like those whose political views are not expressed by any sort of colour, are not satisfied with their present lot. They have been practically outlawed, and it would appear that their social ostracism is now getting on their nerves. They are also having to put up with physical discomforts which probably concern them much more seriously. They have been communicating with the villages in the vicinity of the hills in which they have taken refuge, and have made it known that the effect of being cut off from intercourse is that their food supply has run out; also that they are "cold and lack winter clothing." Accordingly, the inhabitants to whom the "Reds" addressed themselves, and who include the pirates who were particularly prominent in the "Tea" and "Anking" piracies, have been threatened with pains and penalties if they do not assist the discomfited "Reds." Several skirmishes have already taken place, in which the "Reds" seem to have been successful. Probably, they would have gone on sweeping down upon the villagers, robbing them and the pirates to their hearts content had they not met with opposition of a different kind. The authority of the Hoifung district (the coast of which is on Honghai Bay) sent out several expeditions, with the result that the "Reds" activities were temporarily curbed. Several of them were captured and one of the leaders was ignominiously "carried in triumph to Hoifung city." In this the pirates and those associating with them seem to have been much luckier than they deserve. Perhaps the authority in question regarded the matter as one of a choice of two evils.

It is, however, satisfactory to learn that the pirates have been made to realise what compulsion means at the hands of desperate men. It is not unlike having a dose of their own medicine, and all lovers of law and order will hope that the pirates were compelled to disgorge a quantity of the loot of which they callously robbed those on board the "Tea" and "Anking." Now that the local authority have shown what they can do towards suppressing the banditry of the depressed "Reds" perhaps they may logically conclude that they could not do better than turn their attention to the pirates in the district, who are now a much more serious menace to China's progress and prosperity than those who were for a time foolish enough to see and be "Red" at the instigation of Borodin, Eugene Chen and those others misguided enough to be the tools of the Russian Soviet.

CORRESPONDENCE

CHINESE REGARD

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Sir,—There are those that say, "The chief characteristic of the Chinese is selfish-individualism." The following two facts offset this assumption.

In a city of our neighbouring province, several bids had been made for a piece of property but, when the owner, a widow, heard that a missionary society wanted the place, she at once accepted the offer, even though it was the lowest bid, for said she, "I realise that it will be put to a use that will greatly benefit my people."

In the same province a valuable site was offered to a missionary at a low figure, he was unable to buy. Later on, a large trading company asked for the land. The owners were willing to sell but at an increase in price of more than a hundred per cent. When the company demurred, the owners of the site contended it was a different proposition, as the trading company had in view the making of money only, while the missionary would build churches and philanthropic institutions which would greatly help the people of China.

Even to-day many Chinese contend that money is not all; there are other things of far greater value. Any people holding such a truth is not a decaying nation, for in it are the fundamentals of real vitality, endurance and progressiveness which will develop them more and more in spiritual and moral values.

Yours etc.,

NOT SELFISH.

SEVERING LONG CONNECTION WITH THE COLONY

POPULAR TAIKOO MAN

Mr. S. Boulton, of the Taikoo Sugar Refinery, a well-known Hong Kong resident whose connection with the Colony goes back more than 30 years, will be leaving for home on retirement on the P. & O. s.s. "Macedonia" on November 10. A native of Bath, Somersetshire, Mr. Boulton first came to Hong Kong in May, 1898, on securing a temporary post in the local Government service. Afterwards (in January, 1903) he joined Taikoo's and had been with them ever since.

Mr. Boulton's long spell in the Colony was broken by only two short periods of leave at home, totalling 15 months.

A keen bowler, Mr. Boulton was one of the first members of the Taikoo Bowling Green Club in the organisation of which he took an active part.

Mr. Boulton was also a keen Volunteer, a Sunday School teacher at the Quarry Bay School, and a strong supporter of the Anti-Mui Tsai Society. He was also associated with the Taikoo Chinese School.

DEATH OF MR. J. MCGREGOR FORBES

News was received in the Colony, by cable, yesterday, of the death, in Scotland on Wednesday, of Mr. James McGregor Forbes, late of the Swatow branch of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd. The late Mr. Forbes joined the company in 1881 but did not come East until 1903 when he acted as agent at Swatow. He remained in the service of the company until his retirement in 1920 when he settled down at Forbes, Scotland. Except for brief visits the late Mr. Forbes was never in Hong Kong during the many years he was in the East.

He, on the golf course: Stop-ping now? Why, we've only played three holes!"

She: "Certainly—bogey is forty-one, isn't it? And I've already made that!"

Mistress: "Mary, did you tell cook I would help her this morning?"

Maid: "Yes, ma'am, and she says can it be another time as she has so much to do to-day?"

Lambeth woman: I have not any daughters now; they are all married.

Defendant, at Tower Bridge Court: Will you swear you asked me if I had a licence?

P.C.: Yes, I'd swear anything.

Solicitor (at Shoreditch): Are you married? Woman: Yes, I am thankful to say; it gives one a sense of security.

Chairman of Derby Magistrates: Tell us the best story you can for yourself now. Defendant: No, sir; I will tell you the truth.

Man (at Tottenham): He threatened to knock my head off. As a sport, I took off my glasses and said: "The pleasure is yours."

Man (at Wood Green summoned for assaulting a woman): It was her tongue which caused it. It kept coming out, and I lost my temper.

Defendant (at Epping Police Court): I don't wish him any harm, but I hope the next time he goes out in his car he will break his neck.

Chairman of Southend Bench: If some machine could be invented to evaporate women's tempers it would save the Court a lot of trouble.

Solicitor (at Willesden): I ask you not to take any notice of the defendant's disreputable appearance, sir; he is wearing his judgment summons clothes.

Mansfield miner: A front room is not the proper place for a public meeting. Solicitor: Where would you hold it? Miner: In a public-house.

"It is only cars that are left lying about that I steal from," was the candid confession of a man who was charged at Bournemouth Police Court with theft.

"Why did you get over the garden wall?" a defendant at Acton Police Court was asked.

Defendant: Because I didn't want to wake the baby!

Man at Hull (charged with refusing work at the workhouse): "There are three things open to me: to walk about the streets destitute, to go into the workhouse, or to go to prison; and of the three evils I choose prison."

Husband: "What! You bought an artificial arm?"

Wife: "Yes, dear. You see, it was a great bargain, and—"

Husband: "Great Scott! What could you possibly be thinking of? You haven't got any earthly use for such a thing."

Wife: "But, dear, you know you travel on the railway a good deal, and you can never tell what may happen."

The cares of the long day are over, Here, deep in the depths of my chair, I snuggle and watch the blue smoke rings

WATER DOWSING

AN EXPERIMENT IN HONG KONG

WITH PIECE OF WIRE

While the Hong Kong papers devote much of their space to the ever pressing problem of the water supply, the only possible source of supply ever considered in our various schemes is surface water. We have never thought worth consideration the utilization of the under-surface springs which, judging by the luxuriant growth, must be very plentiful on the island. Probably the question of expense has ruled this source out of consideration.

Recently experiments were made in water-dowsing which may provide our reformers with matter on which to build new schemes. Those who are responsible for the building of Ricci Hall (the Catholic University Hostel) invited to Hong Kong a missionary Brother, at present stationed in a mission in the interior, who was known to have had some remarkable successes in Australia and in Portugal in finding water by means of the dowsing rod. In Australia he found a strong supply of water at a depth of twenty feet at a time when sheep were dying at such a rate owing to the drought that in places a sheep could be purchased for a shilling (in 1915).

At Pokfulam

On October 6, in the afternoon, he paid a visit to the site on the Pokfulam Road and made experiments. Holding in his hands a fork-shaped piece of wire the apex of the fork pointing perpendicularly upwards, he walked back and forward over the site. Within five minutes he had his first success. In spite of all his efforts to hold the wire in the perpendicular position, it began to curve inwards towards his body and then downwards, indicating that he was standing over flowing water. Further experiments near this spot resulted in the fork dipping at two other points. All three were in the same straight line, which seemed to show that all belonged to the same flow of water. The experimenter then put aside the forked wire and took in his right hand another piece of wire, straight save for a bend at the one extremity to give a grip. Holding this wire pointed straight in front, he began to walk in a direction that lay across the line formed by the three points at which the fork had dipped in the first experiments. As soon he came over the line, the wire twisted in his hand and did not come to rest again until it lay exactly in the line of the three spots, thereby indicating that the water over which he was standing was flowing in that direction.

His second series of experiments were still more interesting. Walking along the side of the hill, where it falls away towards the University playing fields, the wire dipped suddenly and much more vigorously than on the former occasion, indicating that he was now over a supply that was either much stronger or much nearer the surface than in the first case. The direction rod was then used and indicated that the water was flowing across the site almost parallel to the Pokfulam Road. Here was the chance for the sceptics among the audience. "How could water flow that way? It would have to come under those houses at the foot of the hill and then climb up, and we were always taught that water never—". The man of magic cut short all objections. "You never know how water will flow. It might flow over the top of that mountain" (pointing to Mount Davis). He does not claim to be a scientist but those who have bored for water in Hong Kong will be inclined to agree with him. At any rate he succeeded in silencing the audience and the experiments went on. He now moved into the middle of the ground and again the wire dipped vigorously and we noticed that it was exactly on the line in which the direction rod had indicated that the last mentioned supply was flowing.

And now came the Coup de grace for the sceptics. Putting down the dowsing fork, the experimenter took the direction rod again, but instead of indicating that the water was continuing in a straight line across the site, as we expected, it now indicated that the flow at this point took a sudden turn at right angles and went down the side of the hill to the sea. This could be verified.

Ancient Times

Until further investigations have been made it will be impossible to measure the full value of these experiments, but the facts already observed are quite remarkable enough.

To many people water-dowsing still seems to scent something approaching black magic. Few realize that the art of using the furcata, or forked twig provides an interesting illustration of the saying that there is nothing new under the sun. As early as 1546 this peculiar phenomenon is described by G. Agricola in his De re metallica and by Sebastian Munster in his Cosmography in the early part of the sixteenth century, as used for discovering metallic bodies or water beneath the earth. Its use in modern times dates from experiments of this kind made by prospectors for minerals in the German mining districts. The French chemist M. E. Chevreul assigns its first mention to Basil Valentine, the alchemist of the late 15th century. The Schlagruthe (striking-rod) of the German miners was brought to England by those engaged in the Cornish mines of Queen Elizabeth's day.

In modern times the professional dowsers seem to be almost exclusively "water-finders." Strange to say there is not such a demand for the discovery of precious metals. Whether every water-dowsing can also indicate the presence of metals, the present writer is unable to say. On one occasion in Europe, he was present when professional dowsers were searching for water. They claimed that they could locate gold also and, in point of fact, the forked rod bent at once the moment one of them put his foot over a gold sovereign which had been hidden in the ground.

The Sceptics

Whatever the explanation of this strange faculty, there seems little doubt now, that the sceptical attitude taken up by many scientists towards these phenomena will have to be considerably modified. The words of Professor W. F. Barrett, F.R.S., the chief modern investigator of this subject should carry weight; as early as 1905 he wrote in the "Times" (January 21) that "making a liberal allowance for failures of which I have not heard, I have no hesitation in saying that where fissure water exists and the discovery of underground water for domestic supply is a matter of the utmost difficulty, the chances of success with a good dowsing far exceed mere lucky hits or the success obtained by the most skillful observer, even with full knowledge of local geology." (Italics ours).

The experiments on the Ricci Hall site which we have described were conducted, not with a hazel or willow rod, but with a forked piece of wire. This may surprise many who believe that the explanation lay in some property peculiar to the instrument used. But it is now a well-known fact that some dowsers use no rod whatever, others use a beech or holly twig or one from any other tree, others even use a piece of wire or a watch spring. This proves pretty clearly that the explanation must be sought, not in the nature of the instrument used, but in some peculiar psychic or sensitive faculty possessed by the dowsing himself. Have you this faculty? You may have. During the experiments on the Ricci Hall site, one person present made the discovery that he had it—"The Rock."

A plea of guilty of desertion while on active service in Germany by Lieut. Geoffrey Ross, of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, was rejected by a court martial at Winchester on October 12 as conviction would entail the death penalty. He was found guilty of other charges and sentence will be duly promulgated.

A Chinese was this morning, at the Kowloon Magistracy charged before Mr. W. Schofield with causing unnecessary pain to seventeen ducks by transporting them in a ricksha, with their legs tied together. He was fined $7 with the alternative of 10 days' imprisonment.

KNOCKOUT REILLY

SPLENDID BOXING FILM AT THE QUEEN'S

RICHARD DIX

Of the many boxing pictures that have come to Hong Kong, "Knockout Reilly," now showing at the Queen's, is undoubtedly the best. There is an excellent fight, backed up by a good story. The leading role is taken by Richard Dix as a young man employed in a steel works. His adventures as a boxer, his imprisonment, and his subsequent rise to champion of the world, are all told in an interesting manner. Like all good films, it is lightened by occasional touches of humour. Proceeding "Knockout Reilly" is a daintily coloured film, "Our Lady of Victories," being an episode in the lives of Napoleon and Josephine, and one of the ever-popular British Gazettes. It is an excellent programme, and one that should not be missed.

AT THE WORLD

"WE'RE IN THE NAVY NOW"

Featuring Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, this film is just one laugh from start to finish. From the knockout blow which opens the story, through all their adventures in the Navy to the very last scene, this delightful couple seem to possess charmed lives. It is wonderful how these two, with their lack of knowledge, manage to keep alive through the story. There are some exciting moments too especially when they take a box of dynamite up on deck. How they discover a spy, how they fire at a German submarine, and how they eventually get decorated must be seen to be appreciated.

"F.E.'S" MOTHER PASSES AWAY AT EAST- BOURNE LOVABLE OLD LADY

Mrs. Smith, the mother of Lord Birkenhead, until recently Secretary for India and a former Lord Chancellor, died at Eastbourne last month. With her were her daughters Miss Smith and Mrs. Thompson.
The funeral took place in the beautiful Oakridge Cemetery, below Beachy Head, on a slope facing the glorious sweep of the South Downs.
Mrs. Smith is being buried there at her own wish, expressed while her son was at the bedside shortly before she became unconscious. She had become very fond of Eastbourne, where she had lived for some years.
Mrs. Smith was taken ill and removed to a nursing home immediately. She remained very cheerful, showing her keen interest in everything and insisting upon Miss Smith reading the newspapers to her every morning.

Charming

Mrs. Smith was a most charming old lady. Everyone who knew her loved her. Her conversation was witty and well-informed. She was left a widow with five young children, of whom the boy who became Lord Birkenhead was the eldest, and she sacrificed everything to give these children the best possible chance in life.—"Daily Mail."

ON THE PRAIRIES OF CANADA BABY'S OWN TABLETS ARE A HOUSEHOLD REMEDY.

This Mother Says She Has Found Them Wonderful For Children's Troubles.

You do not have to coax and threaten to get the little ones to take Baby's Own Tablets. The ease with which they are given, as compared with liquid medicines, will appeal to every mother. None is spilled or wasted; you know just how big a dose has reached the little stomach.

As a remedy for the ills of childhood arising from derangements of the stomach and bowels they are most satisfactory.

Mrs. Rose Voyer, Williamamant, Conn., says:—"I used Baby's Own Tablets in the Canadian Northwest and found them a wonderful medicine for children's troubles, especially indigestion and constipation. I have also given them to my children for simple fever and the restlessness accompanying teething and they always gave relief. I can recommend Baby's Own Tablets to all mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail at 60 cents a vial, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

A "NEW WHEEZE"

A THRILLER BY GRAMOPHONE.

EDGAR WALLACE'S LATEST

Mr. Edgar Wallace, author, dramatist, and owner of racehorses, has broken into new paths by becoming a teller of tales for the gramophone.

He has written a special thriller called "The Man in the Ditch" and has read it into the gramophone recording microphone, so that it may be transformed into a double-sided record. It will be issued by the Columbia Company.

It is not fair to divulge the plot, but there is said to be a hangman concerned, a woman who uses a revolver, and, of course, the man in the ditch.

Thus Mr. Wallace characteristically reveals his pastures for story-tellers and writers, beginning what is, in fact, almost a new profession—the gramophone story-teller.

A WEEK'S PAPERS IN ONE

"OVERLAND CHINA MAIL"
ILLUSTRATED.

CHINA NEWS, LOCAL NEWS
AND ALL THE NEWS

SEND IT HOME!

Discussions between Dr. C. T. Wang and Mr. Yada, extending as they did into a fortnight, have attracted considerable attention. Although Japan is the Power concerned, other nations are carefully watching developments in Nanking. Concise and informative reports of proceedings will be found in the "Overland China Mail."

The "Overland" is the only ILLUSTRATED weekly budget of "local" and "China" news. The current number is rich in topical pictures which will be particularly welcome at home.

Locally there has been much of interest. An Investiture was held at Government House; the Portuguese Minister to China favoured Hong Kong with an unofficial visit; several important changes in the law have been made, including reforms in traffic and motoring regulations; Miss Maude Royden is delivering a series of addresses; the names of several merchant vessels have had prominence, for instance, the "Kwangsue" (stranding); the "Kochow" (sequel to salvage); the "Tai Lee" (re-hearing); and the "Darcoile" (trouble among crew), also the launching of two new gunboats for the Canton Government.

One of several features is the exposure of latest Red scheming, an article which will be closely read if only because its predecessors were so widely reproduced in other parts of the Far East.

The "Overland" also reflects a very busy week in the realm of local sport and recreation.

Saturday's Programme Looked Over

GREAT POPPY DAY MATCH

Civilian Team Is Selected

[By "Rover"]

There is a good programme of League matches for to-morrow although the Chinese Athletic have had to scratch their matches as all their players will be engaged at Canton.

Here is the list for to-morrow, with officials:—

Hong Kong League—Div. 1—kick-off 4.15 p.m.
Hong Kong Club v. Queen's Regt., Club ground—referee, L.S.B. A. Atkinson, R.N.

Club Recreio v. Navy, King's Park—referee, Pipe Major Mackie. South China v. K.O.S.B. Regt., Caroline Hill—referee, Staff Sgt. Gilbert.

R.A. v. Kowloon, Kowloon A.F.C.—referee, Mr. Ip Kau-ko. The Small Units (Army) v. Chinese Athletic matches at Soekumpoo is postponed.

Hong Kong League—Junior Division ("A")—kick-off 2.45.
Recreio v. Queen's Regt., Recreio ground, King's Park—referee, Staff Sgt. Gilmour.

University v. K.O.S.B. Regt., Chinese ground, Happy Valley—referee, Corp. W. Lees.

St. Joseph's v. Small Units, St. Joseph's ground, Happy Valley—referee, C.P.O. C. Craig.

R.A. v. R.A.F., Soekumpoo—referee, Mr. Stoakes.
Eastern v. South China "A", Navy ground, Happy Valley—referee, Ldg. S. J. H. Crossley.

The following matches in the Junior Division for Saturday have been postponed:—South China "B" v. Navy, Chinese Athletic v. Kowloon.

With four matches in the 1st Division and five in the 2nd Division or Junior Section, we are well catered for, and the staging of two matches at Hong Kong and two at Kowloon is a nice balance.

The meeting of the Club and Queen's Regiment should provide a fine match. I have confidence that the Club will finish the season strong. Despite current form, the Queen's will have to go all out to get the points on Saturday, clever as they are. Bishop is up with the forwards, owing to Wallington's return, and Club can stand down man like Peers and Massey. This looks good for the future, and with George Rodger returning shortly and Goldman from Shanghai joining the Club in the near future, the revival of the Senior Club of the Colony is assured. The Club's form last week was misleading. They will do much bigger things than this before the end of the season. The Queen's can hardly fail to secure the full points on form, but form never took us anywhere in football yet, and if Club secure a point, I would not be surprised, although the Queen's might be.

The 2nd Division programme is interesting but not thrilling. Owing to Canton sporting activities, the Chinese Clubs are standing down, the Athletic, at present unbeaten, not taking the field on Saturday, and wins for Queen's Regiment Reserves, K.O.S.B. Res., St. Joseph's, R.A., and South China A., appear very probable. This League looks at present to be in the safe hands of the Borderers 2nd XI, and Chinese Athletic Res., but the Navy 2nd XI will cause much trouble before matters are finally decided, and they will field a very strong XI each Saturday from now on to the end of season.

At Caroline Hill the South China A.A., who have made a brilliant start, will get their first trial of strength, and I think the Borderers will win with a bit in hand. South China at full strength are a useful side, their great asset being fast forwards and a clever goalie, two good factors, but I think the Borderers inside forwards, will quickly pick out the weak spots in the opposing defence. McClintock, Stock, Skiggs, and Humphreys are real footballers, and if South China can keep them from scoring the Chinese will have a big chance. The match should be a great one, as both Clubs will be at full strength and South China's speedy forwards, at Caroline Hill, will have plenty of room to operate in. If South China can get a point from this match, they will do well.

At Kowloon the R.A., probably without Leech, will give the locals on the Railway ground a good run. Kowloon are team building, and as yet their form is very variable; but at last the regular half back line is functioning, and if the newly arranged forward line can pick up passes, Kowloon will stand a chance. This match will be very interesting, with the odds slightly in favour of the R.A., but there should not be very much in it at the final whistle and a draw is a probable result.

Recreio, who are losing C. Remedios, will probably get full points against the Navy, but the latter are getting real experience in their recent matches and will put up a good fight. Recreio will probably play Carvalho, a good half back, in Remedios' place, whilst the Navy are shuffling their team with a view to future matches. This game should be a good one, with the Recreio forwards just too

(Police); Stewart (Capt.) (Club), McKelvie (Kowloon); Tso Kwai-shing (Chinese Athletic), Fung King-chung (South China A.A.), Gosano (Club de Recreio), Suen Kam-sung (Chinese Athletic), Chen Kwong-lu (Chinese Athletic).
Reserves:—Li Tin-sang (South China A.A., McBride (Club), Rocha, Brown (Club de Recreio).
At Club ground, kick off 4 p.m.
Referee:—Mr. Ip Kau-ko.
Linesmen:—C. P. O. Craig, Sergt. Bunting.

Club Win Again
H.K.F.C. (RUGGER SECTION) v. AN ARMY XV.

By 9 points to 3, the Hong Kong Football Club (rugger section) defeated an Army XV at Happy Valley yesterday after a good all-round match in which there was some very speedy play.

The Club team combined to advantage. The forwards packed well and gave the three-quarters full scope by nearly always getting possession in the scrums.

Lammert scored the first try, in a corner, after the Rev. Koop had drawn the defence and passed. Then Wales (at half) made a fine movement for Koop to put on the finishing touch and score the second try. Scott failed with both kicks.

In the second half, Scott broke away and gave to Lammert who again scored. The place kick, as from Lammert's first, was from a difficult angle and failed.

The soldiers had been having their share of the game and now threatened danger. Marshall intercepted one of the Club's passing movements and touched down after a fine individual effort. The points for goal were not added.

Final score: The Club 9 points (3 tries), the Army XV 3 points (1 try).

ROWING RACES

ANOTHER REGATTA IN DECEMBER

EVENT FOR FOURS

Discussion has been taking place as to arrangements for rowing races after the Opening Cruise, and it has been decided to hold another Regatta in December, most probably Saturday, December 22 will be the date chosen.

The full programme has not yet been settled, but the chief item of general interest to rowing members will be International Races, which have not been held for some years. Open to members of the Yacht Club, there will be one event for Fours over one mile and one for Pairs, course three-quarters of a mile. As far as can be seen at present, there is material to provide English, Scottish, German and Scandinavian Fours, and it should be noted that it is not necessary for the Cox, to be of the same nationality as his crew.

Probably most of those who are taking an active part in the Opening Cruise Regatta on November 10 will feel like a short rest before starting training again, but notice of the International Races is being given now in order that the selection of crews may be considered early.

PEPS

A Real Breatheable Remedy.

For Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Bronchial Catarrh, etc.

Peps are found invaluable for allaying that teasing, tickling cough, for loosening phlegm, and soothing and healing the semi-inflamed membranes of the throat and bronchial tubes.

As you breathe in the agreeable medicinal fumes given off when a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth, a unique healing and germicidal influence is extended deep into chest and lungs (which are never touched by liquid cough-mixtures).

The regular use of Peps on retiring will ensure healthy slumber undisturbed by coughing bouts.

JACK DEMPSEY AS HERO OF UNDERWORLD MELODRAMA

K. O. NIGHTLY

Jack Dempsey, the former heavyweight world champion, graduated from the prize ring to the stage at the Majestic Theatre, as a coster-monger, with Estelle Taylor, his wife, in "The Big Fight," by Max March and M. H. Gropper, produced by David Belasco.

Dempsey as Jack Dillon surprised everybody by his stage presence. He had little to say except such lines as, "I'll say so" and "Is that so?" He acted modestly, quietly, and naturally, however, and brought the audience to its feet in the last act, when in a two-round realistic fight he knocked out the villain, "Battling" Baker, played by Ralph Smith, the Californian gladiator, who was one of Heeney's sparring partners for his fight with Tunney. Smith was knocked cold for the count, and, as far as the audience could see, it was a real mugging bout. This part entails so much endurance that Jack Herman, a prominent pugilist, will alternate with Smith in the role, Dempsey knocking them out on alternate nights.

Estelle Taylor (Dempsey's wife) plays the part of Shirley, a manicure girl who resists the efforts of underworld characters to "dope" Jack Dillon, and so prevents professional gamblers from making a clean up on "Battling" Baker.

Dempsey's salary is said to be $2,000 a week.

In the "Lusitania" was lost when the ship met with disaster.

Elsie Davies, then about eight years of age, became a beneficiary of the Lusitania Disaster Fund. The fund committee recently had her voice tested by Dr. Goss Custard, of Liverpool Cathedral, who predicted that, given proper training, she had a great singing career before her.

Miss Davies then took up a post in a music store in Dartford, coming to London three times a week for lessons, but now the fund has enabled her to live in London and devote herself to her art.

A press representative heard Miss Davies sing in the little room she rents off Ladbrooke Grove. First of all Mozart's "Batti, batti" from Don Giovanni, and then "O Legere Hironelle" from Gounod's "Mireille." The golden voice filled the room with its liquid notes. She sings as a bird sings because she is young, and life—in spite of sorrows—is good.

She has a charming manner of mingled shyness and friendliness, but her eyes light up when she sings, and again when she speaks of her music.

Royal Family at Balmoral Castle.

It was the first cinema show at the castle this autumn, and "Trooping the Colour," presented by British Talking Pictures, Limited, was the first occasion on which the King had seen and heard a sound picture.

The King, with the Prince of Wales and members of his suite, was filmed while reviewing the troops on the Horse Guards' Parade at Whitehall. Sound effects were obtained from the words of command during the ceremony, and from the music provided by the massed bands of the Guards.

A special recording van, equipped with phonofilm projecting and sound reproducing apparatus, was sent north and a staff of electricians set to work to adapt the ballroom to the purpose of a cinema.

On September 14 he arrived at Padang, in the Froume district of Burma, after having encountered all kinds of hardships. He was then about to penetrate the Arakan Forest, which he thinks will take him three months to traverse. He left Malacca in March last, and succeeded in reaching Singora, Siam in 28 days.

COMMEMORATING THE ARMISTICE

"A THING OF PEACE"

NEW BRITISH WAR MEDAL STRUCK BY MINT

THE SHEATHED SWORD

London, Yesterday.
A medal has been struck by the Royal Mint to commemorate the armistice.
The mint will issue medals in two sizes. There will be a large silver medal, three inches in diameter which will be sold at 30/ and a large bronze medal of the same size at 10/; and here will be a small bronze medal, one and a quarter inches in diameter, sold at 1/6d.
The design of the medal has been chosen after competition between several well-known medallists, the successful competitor being Mr. Doman.

Official Statements

An official of the Mint says:—"We have simply followed the example of other countries which fought in the war. As they had all struck commemorative medals and we had not we thought the tenth anniversary of the armistice was a fitting opportunity to issue one. It is new in British history. Never before has such a medal been struck by the Mint after a war." The Government were anxious there should not be any jingo or vindictive air about the medal and the designer has made it a thing of peace.

On one side is a figure of Great Britain supporting a young warrior with sheathed sword and broken shackles of war, offering a wreath of laurels to the memory of the fallen. On the other side is the centaur surrounded by the inscription:—"Their name liveth for evermore." The sheathed sword and broken shackles of war were suggested by the great phrase Lord Oxford uttered when Britain entered the war:—"We shall not sheath the sword until justice has been done."

The proceeds of the sales will be devoted to covering the cost of the manufacture of the medals. If there is any surplus it will go back to the government.—British Wireless Service.

CHINA SALT LOANS

JAPANESE LEGATION AWAIT INSTRUCTIONS

NOT BOUND BY AGREEMENT

Peking, Yesterday.

The Japanese Legation has not yet received written notice regarding the China salt agreement and is awaiting the Tokyo Government's instructions, but in the meantime has verbally informed the other Legations concerned that Japan is not bound by any agreement Mr. F. Hussey-Freke (the Associate Chief Inspector) has made.

Foreign circles emphasise that the 1913 Agreement was not between the Powers and China, but between China and the Group Banks; hence the Powers are not likely to intervene in the present arrangement between Mr. Hussey-Freke and the Chinese Government, though it is feared that the position of the foreign bondholders has become worse, depending on the goodwill of the Government which may, with the best will in the world, be unable to coerce the local authorities into paying the funds monthly.

It is believed, however, that Mr. Hussey-Freke had the choice of making the agreement on the present lines or of seeing the Salt Gabelle completely collapse.—Reuter.

OVER A SHIRT

SHOOTING INCIDENT IN COLOMBO

PLEA ACCEPTED

Singapore, Oct. 26.

The Police Magistrate of Colombo took up for trial last week the case in which Inspector Lloyd, of the Crime Police, charged Arthur Thomas Bennett, Robert Webster, George William Peklay, Herbert William Thomson and Robert Cox, passengers on the O.L. Osterley with being members of an unlawful assembly, whose common object was to rescue William Robson from the lawful custody of the Police, with having assaulted a Police constable on September 5th in the Fort Colombo.

The case arose out of an incident in a Colombo shop when following a dispute in regard to the purchase of a shirt Robson fired a revolver wounding a shop assistant and a richa puller.

The Police were prepared to accept a plea of disorderly conduct under section 2 of the Ordinance 4 of 1841 not being able to prove satisfactorily that the accused were either members of an unlawful assembly or that they rescued William Robson.

A Free Fight

The Magistrate delivered the following order:—

I think it is quite clear that there is insufficient evidence to support the charge under sections 140 and 220 of the Penal Code, and I discharge accused under those counts.

The evidence has disclosed the fact that as a result of a shooting incident in which William Robson was concerned a lot of excitement was aroused and that there ensued a sort of free fight between the members of the crew of the Osterley and members of the local population. In that "rough house" some or all of the accused undoubtedly took part. I think the charge originally laid against the accused fails for lack of satisfactory evidence. The accused have been heavily punished for their escapade by being left on remand for six weeks.

In the circumstances I am prepared to accept their plea of guilty to behaving in a riotous or disorderly manner in a public place. I find each accused guilty and fine each accused Rs. 5 the only penalty provided under the Section.

TRAGIC AFFAIR

BRIDEGROOM FOUND GASED IN OFFICE

MISSING TWO DAYS

Manchester.—The mystery of a bridegroom's disappearance was solved by the discovery at Bolton of the body of Samuel Beaumont, aged 30, of Hulme, Manchester, in a gas-filled railway office, where he worked.

Beaumont was to have been married to Miss Gladys Dyson, of Bewick, Manchester, at Christ Church, Bradford, Manchester.

The church was packed and the bride arrived, but not the bridegroom.

A reception having been arranged at the Clayton Labour Club, the guests went there, some passing the time dancing, but the hope that the bridegroom would be found was in vain.

Until a little while ago, it is stated, Beaumont was cheerful and bright. A serious illness, which developed into pneumonia, had left him weak, but he had appeared to look forward to his marriage. It was two days before the body was found.

The "B" Division trophies of the Lawn Bowls League will be presented at the Club de Recreio by Mr. B. Wylie on November 10 at 5.15 p.m. Mr. G. M. de Rocha will reply.

QUICKER & STRONGER AIRSHIPS

ECKNER'S VIEWS

WHAT IS WANTED FOR PASSENGER SERVICE

STOWAWAY "PUBLICITY"

Berlin, Yesterday.

According to the "Vossische Zeitung," Captain Eckener explained that unfavourable weather, particularly a storm in the neighbourhood, prevented the "Graf Zeppelin" from making the expected speed.

He added: "This ship, in view of my experiences is finished with for any regular passenger service concerned. We must build quicker and stronger airships if we are to take up regular passenger service."

Friedrichshafen, Yesterday.

After cruising for some hours overhead awaiting daylight, the "Zeppelin" landed safely at 7.10, amid a roar of cheers from the thousands of spectators.

Crew Cheered

Passport and customs formalities were soon finished and passengers and crew were thunderously applauded as they left the hangar.

The stowaway "Clarence" was handed a provisional passport by the American Consul at Stuttgart in the airship's cabin and was then spirited away from a side door of the hangar to avoid pressmen. Newspaper contracts are doubtless responsible for the determined silence maintained by the passengers.

Publicity "Stowaway"

Terhune was the centre of attraction but he was mysteriously reticent owing to an "arrangement I have made with Eckener." This fact, coupled with the announcement that Terhune is speedily returning to America has aroused scepticism as to the bona fides of the "stowaway," who is rumoured to have been smuggled aboard for publicity purposes.

Disaster Threatened

The huge crowds swarming around the aerodrome impeded the ground and the crew were caused an anxious moment as the "Graf Zeppelin" threatened to crash into the shed. Disaster was narrowly averted.

In 63 1/2 Hours

The noise of propellers at 430 brought thousands to their doors and windows to see the brilliantly illuminated airship flying low in the morning mist.

Crowds quickly gathered in the streets and enthusiastically cheered. Thousands streamed to the landing ground.

The return flight had taken 63 1/2 hours, compared with 112 hours on the outward journey.

The airship actually flew 71 hours and 10 minutes.—Reuter.

MADRAS TRAGEDY

PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN CHARGED

Madras, Sept. 28.

The Police preferred a charge to-day against Mr. Collett, Manager of the Vacuum Oil Company, Ltd., in connection with the motor tragedy on September 22 for rash and negligent driving.

The magistrate issued a summons. Ten persons—two of whom died subsequently—were injured as the result of the motor tragedy on Sunday, when a party of bandmen, returning from the Port Staff Club dance in rickshas, were knocked down by a car. Four of the occupants of the rickshas and two ricksha coolies were seriously injured. The vehicles were damaged.

Later, the car ran into a party of Mohammedans carrying an empty bier from a burial ground, knocking down all four pall-bearers and smashing the bier. Two of the pall-bearers died in hospital. Mr. Collett, Manager of the Vacuum Oil Co., Ltd., was arrested on a charge of rash and negligent driving. He was released on bail. At the inquest, the jury returned a divided verdict: the majority holding that the evidence was unsatisfactory in regard to the identification of the car and driver, while the minority, two Indian jurors, thought that Collett was blameworthy.

The "B" Division trophies of the Lawn Bowls League will be presented at the Club de Recreio by Mr. B. Wylie on November 10 at 5.15 p.m. Mr. G. M. de Rocha will reply.
